F.M. 94 — 22 — 1

General and Revenue Secretariat Club,

Bangalore, 6th January 1923.

To

The Chief Secretary to Government,

Bangalore.

Sir,

I am directed to bring to your kind notice that the Compiler, Mysore Gazette was, under the authority of a Secretariat communication dated the 5th January 1911 (copy enclosed for ready reference) supplying to the G.R.S.Club all the newspapers and magazines received by him in exchange for the Mysore Gazette. For some time past, the supply was stopped and on enquiry it was learnt that the supply hitherto made to us was directed to the Secretariat Visitors' table.

The resources of the Club are hardly sufficient to meet the establishment and contingent charges and it is found extremely difficult to keep the Club going without the continuance of the beneficient help that the Government were extending to it in the past. Already for want of newspapers and magazines in the Club Reading Room, the membership roll has enormously decreased and the Committee of Management are afraid that the good work which the Club was doing would be altogether lost as they cannot afford sufficient inducement to the members entirely out of their own resources.

In these circumstances, the Committee earnestly request that the arrangement hitherto in vogue under which the Club obtained all the newspapers and magazines received by the Compiler in exchange for the Gazette, may be ordered to be continued. If this should be found to be not feasible, then, the Club may be supplied at least with any three Madras Dailies (preferably Madras Mail, Hindu and Justice) and one local daily (The Daily Post) together with such number of weekly and monthly magazines as may be conveniently spared.

The Committee venture to hope that the Club which bears the name of the Central Office of Government, and which all along enjoyed the special patronage of Government will not how be deprived of the help which was its special privilege to receive for the last twelve years.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

R. Deva Rao

Honorary Secretary.
